MATRIMONIAL.

At Jonesville, Miss., Alfred Wilton, aged 65, was married to Miss [Joshua] Wayne, 17.

Luther Coleman and Miss Asa Jordan Cravens, both of Casey, were made one by Judge J. S. Owalev Friday.

Carl Jackson and Miss Minnie Bonta, of Mercer, were made one by Rev. Robinson as they sat in their buggy in front of his parsonage.

J. Sam Lyon, of Springfield, Ill., son of Evan Lyon, of Lincoln county, Ky., and Miss Minnie E. Goss, a lovable young lady of Niantic, this State, were quietly married at the home of the bride on Wednesday, Feb. 24. The bride is a charming young lady while the groom is a prosperous young business man of Springfield, being a conductor on an interurban line between Springfield and Decatur. They will go to housekeeping soon and are anticipating a trip to Kentucky this summer.—Illinois Star.

The Courier-Journal of Sunday announces the engagement of Miss Beulah Elkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Elkin, of Louisville, to Mr. Richard Menefee Newland, of this place, the marriage to take place in May. Miss Elkin has spent several Summers at Crab Orchard Springs and those of our young people who have the pleasure of her acquaintance say she is a most charming lady. Mr. Newland is a son of Mr. T. D. Newland, is well and favorably known in this section and is an exceedingly clever and affable young man. He is at present engaged in the insurance business and is making a decided success of it.

SAD DEATH.—The death of Mrs. Daisy Burnside Huffman, wife of A. G. Huffman, occurred in Louisville, Monday, March 15th, caused by heart disease. The death was very sudden although she had been ill for several days. The burial took place Wednesday, at 11:30, at Lancaster cemetery. A large crowd of relatives and friends came with the remains from Louisville and Stanford. Rev. Yandell, of Stanford, conducted a short funeral service. The floral offering was profuse, which together with the outbursts of grief, throughout the entire crowd, manifested clearly the very high esteem in which she was held. She was a lady of excellent traits of character, being a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burnside. Mr. Burnside was a native of this county and was a member of one of the largest and most influential families in Central Kentucky. To the husband, his three children, her two sisters, Mrs. R. S. Putman, of Lebanon, and Mrs. E. P. Owsley, of Columbus, Ga., the Record joins the community in extending sincere condolence.—Lancaster Record.

A Religious Author's Statement.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperon, Sallybury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." New Stanford Drug Co.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Baptist congregation at Somerset has decided to erect a new $15,000 church.

The meeting conducted at the Baptist church by Bro. Barnes, of Danville, closed Friday with 60 additions to the church. It was certainly a power for good and we would gladly welcome Bro. Barnes to our town again.—Brookhead Cor. Mt. Vernon Signal.

With inlaid rod and jeweled reel,
Sail to a sylvan nook he'll steal.
His fishing kit,
We must admit,
When all complete, will cost a deal.

To save expense he has no wish,
He'll seek a pool where ripples swish.
Established there,
Perhaps he'll snare
A tadpole or a vagrant fish.

Charles P. Taft, a brother of the President, married the only daughter of David Sinton, one of the richest men in Cincinnati, who died in 1900. Mrs. Taft was the sole legatee. Included in her father's estate was local real estate property valued at $223,830. The inheritance tax on this amounted to $8,902. Mr. Taft did not pay the tax on time and now $4,564 interest and penalty is added.

The campaign to procure legislation against speculation in cotton, grain and other agricultural products will be carried on in the Sixty-first Congress with even more vigor than in the Sixtieth Congress, according to the statements of Southern members.

An electrical and wind storm in and around Campbellsville did great damage. Dan Miller, a breeder of blooded stock, lost two horses valued at $600 and $800, in the destruction of a $1,000 barn, which burned. Another barn on Miller's place also burned. It was filled with hay.

A Newport dispatch says: The grand jury of Campbell county has returned two indictments against Sheriff John Nagel, charging him with failure to perform his duty in that he is said to have allowed the operations of poolrooms in the county. Several employees of poolrooms were indicted some time ago, and it is alleged that Nagel was slow in serving the warrants so that the men were able to move to Cincinnati.

Resolutions of Respect.

CRAB ORCHARD, March 8.—Whereas our beloved brother, Dr. Robert G. Redif, who for 12 years had been confined to his room with paralysis, departed this life on Feb. 21, 1909, aged 67 years.

Resolved that this lodge has lost one of its faithful members and the community an upright citizen.

Resolved that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his relatives and commend them to God, whom he served.

Resolved that we set apart in the secretary's book a page to his memory and have a copy of these resolutions printed in the Masonic Home Journal and in the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

SALESWOMAN KILLED.—There was sadness in town and county Saturday night when the news was phoned that little Harvey Muir McRoberts, the bright little five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McRoberts, had been fatally hurt by a loadless wagon passing over him at the home of Hon. W. H. Shanks, where the McRoberts are spending the winter. A few moments before the horrible accident, little Harvey had called to Tip Crutchfield, who was driving the wagon, that he and his sister, Annie D. McRoberts, would be down to see him the following day. "All right," answered Crutchfield, and almost in the twinkling of an eye heard Harvey scream. Crutchfield rushed to the child and grasping him in his arms took him to the house where his grandmother, Mrs. Annie D. VanArsdale, and sister were. The parents were in town at the time and were phoned for but when they reached home the sweet little spirit had flown and there was another angel in the realms above. Harvey was a general favorite and remarkable in many ways. He knew nearly everybody in town and never forgot an incident. It mattered not how inimical it was, and while not precocious, his ways were greatly in advance of his tender years. It is sad indeed that the fine little fellow should have met such a tragic end. The parents, grandmother and sister are almost crushed by their great loss and in this, their dark hour unbound sympathy is felt for them. Hay He Who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb give them strength to withstand the fearful blow that has been dealt and cause them soon to realize that their loss is Harvey's eternal gain. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning Rev. J. L. Yandell offered a prayer at the home, an appropriate hymn was sung, after which the remains were laid away in Buffalo cemetery. There was scarcely a dry eye at the funeral and every heart in the vast throng went out to the bereaved family. Beautiful flowers brought by sympathetic and loving friends hid the little mound that marks the resting place of him who was loaned to his parents for so brief a period.

This fine black saddle stallion was bred by the great saddle breeding stallion, Old Stonewall. This colt's dam was a Denmark mare.

He is a nice colt. He has colts to prove his good breeding. Will stand at $8 to insure a full weaning time. We hold him equal to any other. Barren mares made to stand by the impregnator. We have perfect success in this breeding.

BILLY BRECKINRIDGE.

This fine black jack was sired by Major John D. Harris' imported jack. He will make the season of 1909 at my barn at $8 to insure a colt until weaning time. His get of foals are very good.

We have a good breeding stallion, Old Stonewall, and a good mare, Old Stonewall.

He is a fine colt. He has colts to prove his good breeding.
